Biotechgate partners with HollandBIO to launch a Biotech directory for the Netherlands

Switzerland /The Netherlands, Oct 2014 – Venture Valuation owned Biotechgate announces the partnership with HollandBIO to create a directory of Dutch Biotech, Pharma and Medtech companies. In addition the platform is supported by Medical Delta, the life science and medical technology cluster in the west of the Netherlands. The online directory makes it easier to find partners in the Netherlands and informs visitors about the Dutch life science industry.

The Dutch life science directory is part of Biotechgate a global life science database, (www.biotechgate.com) which includes more than 30'000 company profiles. Thanks to a comprehensive search form, it allows users to seek for specific companies filtering by sectors, indications, product phase and many other categories. The database is available at HollandBIO's website, www.hollandbio.nl, as well as on the new version of the Dutch Life Science Database, www.dutchlifescience.com. In addition, a cluster specific directory can be found on Medical Delta's website.

The user-friendly Dutch Life Science Database includes more than 1200 profiles of companies active in the Biotech, Pharma or Medtech sector. All profiles are updated continuously. The use of the database as well as being listed in the directory is free of charge. The Dutch platform is one of 30 country specific life science databases run and maintained by Venture Valuation.

“The Netherlands is home to a vibrant, dense biotechnology cluster. We are very pleased to provide more insights and foster the visibility of this cluster. The partnership with Biotechgate will allow visitors to easily access our broad network of Dutch Biotech, Pharma and Medtech companies, which makes the Dutch Life Science Database a perfect tool to promote the innovative Dutch life science sector.”

Annemiek Verkamman, Director of HollandBIO

“We hope the new Dutch Life Science Database will contribute to the partnering activities in the Netherlands. We are delighted to welcome HollandBIO to our network of over 30 worldwide partners.”
